

JOIN CODEPINK

CODEPINK: Women for peace is a vibrant women-led grassroots peace and social justice movement that strives for positive social change through creative protest, non-violent direct action, and community involvement. Rejecting the Bush administration's fear-based security alerts, CODEPINK is a spirited call to "wage peace."

The women of CODEPINK address serious issues in a multitude of creative, sometimes outrageous, ways, always bringing into play the sensibilities of respect, compassion, and interconnectedness. We have redefined the color pink as one of power and action.

Through vigils, marches, rallies, non-violent civil disobedience, concerts and art exhibits, many thousands of us in over 100 CODEPINK chapters across the country have loudly opposed the war and occupation in Iraq and have stood up for a variety of issues at the intersection of peace and justice.

Join some of the country's most creative and politically active women as we tackle important issues in our communities and our world. Help us protect civil liberties, stand up for voters' rights, and make a joyful noise for peace. Put on your pinkest, most powerful clothes and add your voice to the growing chorus at one of our many actions.

www.bayareacodepink.org www.codepinkalert.org
info@bayareacodepink.org 510-524-2776

Weekly 1 hour Vigils Wednesdays 5:15-6:15p.m.

S.F. Vigil: Market & Ellis – Janet riotcrone@yahoo.com

Oakland Vigil: 2116 Broadway, army recruiting station - jeanne jeany98@aol.com

Weekly CodePINK Wednesday Meetings 7:00p.m.

2nd Wednesday, San Francisco, Muddy Waters Coffee House

1st, 3rd, 4th Wednesdays CodePINK Office, 1248 Solano Ave, Albany

www.bayareacodepink.org vigils page or email rae@codepinkalert.org

J

JOIN CODEPINK

CODEPINK: Women for peace is a vibrant women-led grassroots peace and social justice movement that strives for positive social change through creative protest, non-violent direct action, and community involvement. Rejecting the Bush administration's fear-based security alerts, CODEPINK is a spirited call to "wage peace."

The women of CODEPINK address serious issues in a multitude of creative, sometimes outrageous, ways, always bringing into play the sensibilities of respect, compassion, and interconnectedness. We have redefined the color pink as one of power and action.

Through vigils, marches, rallies, non-violent civil disobedience, concerts and art exhibits, many thousands of us in over 100 CODEPINK chapters across the country have loudly opposed the war and occupation in Iraq and have stood up for a variety of issues at the intersection of peace and justice.

Join some of the country's most creative and politically active women as we tackle important issues in our communities and our world. Help us protect civil liberties, stand up for voters' rights, and make a joyful noise for peace. Put on your pinkest, most powerful clothes and add your voice to the growing chorus at one of our many actions.

www.bayareacodepink.org www.codepinkalert.org
info@bayareacodepink.org 510-524-2776

Weekly 1 hour Vigils Wednesdays 5:15-6:15p.m.

S.F. Vigil: Market & Ellis – Janet riotcrone@yahoo.com

Oakland Vigil: 2116 Broadway, army recruiting station - jeanne jeany98@aol.com

Weekly CodePINK Wednesday Meetings 7:00p.m.

2nd Wednesday, San Francisco, Muddy Waters Coffee House

1st, 3rd, 4th Wednesdays CodePINK Office, 1248 Solano Ave, Albany

www.bayareacodepink.org vigils page or email rae@codepinkalert.org